

G What poor astronomers are they à4

John Dowland
(1563-1626)

Canto

What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for
And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle
But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on
But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their

Alto

8 What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for
And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle
But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on
But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their

Tenor

8 What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for
And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle
But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on
But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their

Basso

What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for
And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle
But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on
But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their

4

stars, and set their thoughts in bat - tle 'ray, to
heads, to catch young fan - cies in the nest and
wheels, while will can - not per - suad - ed be, with sight, but leave them to their stu - dy still, to

8 stars, and set their thoughts in bat - tle 'ray, to
heads, to catch young fan - cies in the nest and
wheels, while will can - not per - suad - ed be, with
sight, but leave them to their stu - dy still, to

8 stars, and set their thoughts in bat - tle 'ray, to
heads, to catch young fan - cies in the nest and
wheels, while will can - not per - suad - ed be, with
sight, but leave them to their stu - dy still, to

stars, and set their thoughts in bat - tle 'ray, to
heads, to catch young fan - cies in the nest and
wheels, while will can - not per - suad - ed be, with sight, but leave them to their stu - dy still, to 8

fight such i - dle wars, when in the end they shall ap - prove
lay it in fools' beds; that, be - ing hatch'd in Beau - ty's eyes,
that which rea - son feels; that wom-en's eyes and stars are odd,
look where is no light. Till them too late we make them try,

8 fight such i - dle wars, when in the end they shall ap - prove
lay it in fools' beds; that, be - ing hatch'd in Beau - ty's eyes,
that which rea - son feels; that wom-en's eyes and stars are odd,
look where is no light. 'Till them too late we make them try,

8 fight such i - dle wars, when in the end they shall ap - prove
lay it in fools' beds; that, be - ing hatch'd in Beau - ty's eyes,
that which rea - son feels; that wom-en's eyes and stars are odd,
look where is no light. 'Till them too late we make them try,

fight such i - dle wars, when in the end they shall ap - prove
lay it in fools' beds; that, be - ing hatch'd in Beau - ty's eyes,
that which rea - son feels; that wom-en's eyes and stars are odd,
look where is no light. 'Till them too late we make them try,

12

'tis but a jest drawn out of love. out of love.
they may be fledg'd ere they be wise. they be wise.
and Love is but a feign - ed god. feign - ed god.
they stu - dy false a - stro - no - my! stro - no - my!

8 'tis but a jest drawn out of love. out of love.
they may be fledg'd ere they be wise. they be wise.
and Love is but a feign - ed god. feign - ed god.
they stu - dy false a - stro - no - my! stro - no - my!

8 'tis but a jest drawn out of love. out of love.
they may be fledg'd ere they be wise. they be wise.
and Love is but a feign - ed god. feign - ed god.
they stu - dy false a - stro - no - my! stro - no - my!

'tis but a jest drawn out of love. out of love.
they may be fledg'd ere they be wise. they be wise.
and Love is but a feign - ed god. feign - ed god.
they stu - dy false a - stro - no - my! stro - no - my!

What poor astronomers are they à4

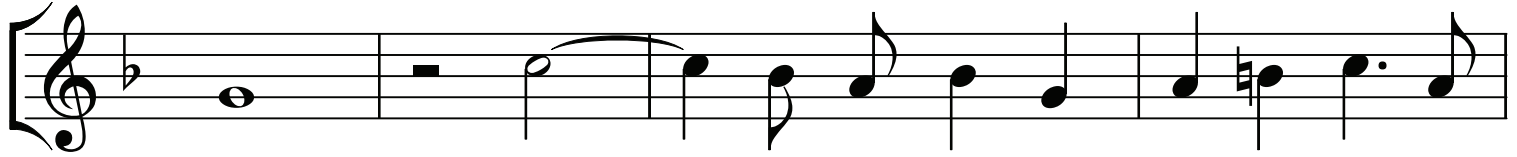

John Dowland (1563-1626)

Canto

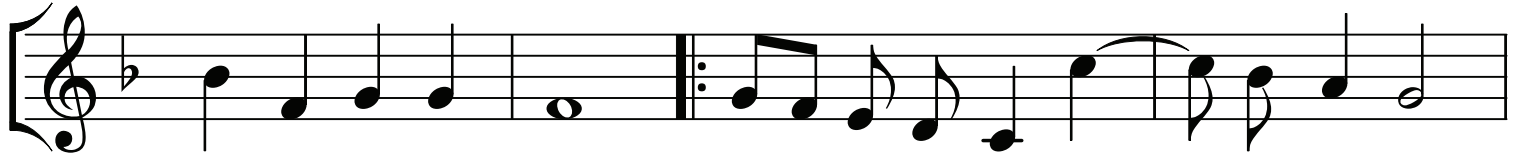

What poor — a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for
And love — it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle
But yet — it is a sport to see how wit will run on
But such — as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their

4

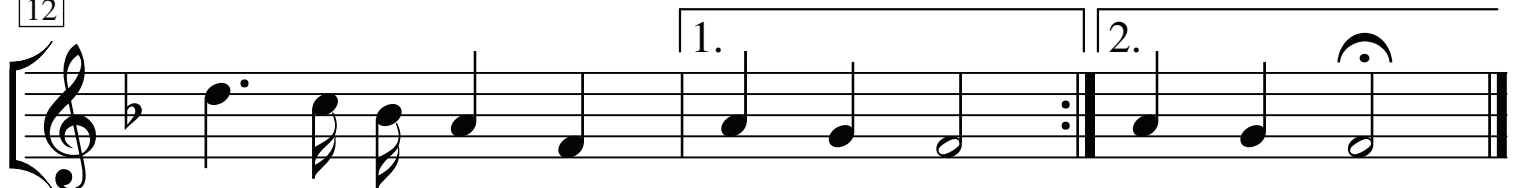

stars, and — set their thoughts in bat - tle 'ray, to
heads, to — catch young fan - cies in the nest and
wheels, while — will can - not per - suad - ed be, with sight, but — leave them to their stu - dy still, to 8

fight such i - dle wars, when — in the end they — shall ap - prove
lay it in fools' beds; that, — be - ing hatch'd in — Beau - ty's eyes,
that which rea - son feels; that — wom-en's eyes and — stars are odd,
look where is no light. Till — them too late we — make them try,

12

'tis but a jest drawn out of love. out of love.
they may be fledg'd ere they be wise. they be wise.
and Love is but a feign - ed god. feign - ed god.
they stu - dy false a - stro - no - my! stro - no - my!

What poor astronomers are they à4

John Dowland (1563-1626)

Alto

8

What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for
And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle
But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on
But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their

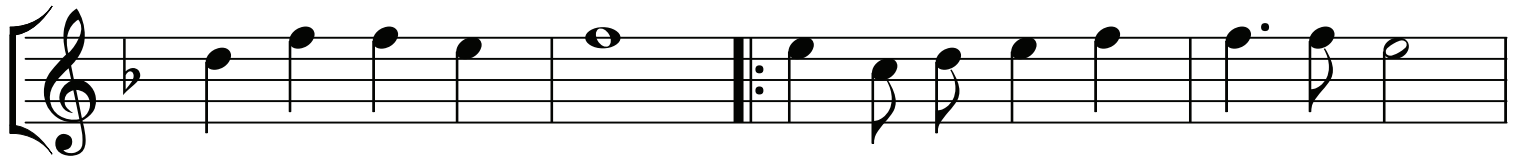

4

8

stars, and set their thoughts in bat - tle 'ray, to
heads, to catch young fan - cies in the nest and
wheels, while will can - not per - suad - ed be, with sight, but leave them to their stu - dy still, to 8

fight such i - dle wars, when in the end they shall ap - prove
lay it in fools' beds; that, be - ing hatch'd in Beau - ty's eyes,
that which rea - son feels; that wom-en's eyes and stars are odd,
look where is no light. 'Till them too late we make them try,

12

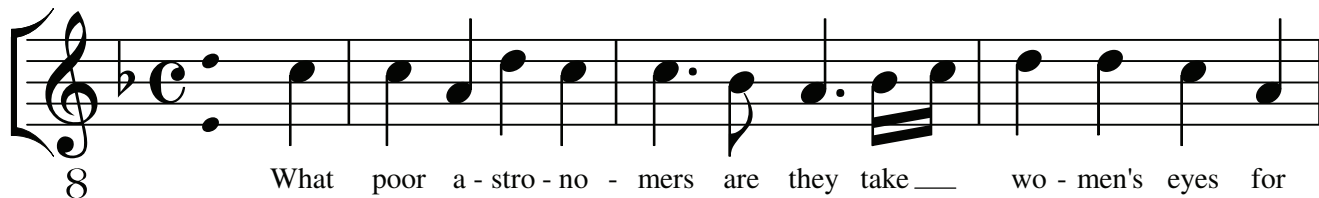

1. 2.

'tis but a jest drawn out of love. out of love.
they may be fledg'd ere they be wise. they be wise.
and Love is but a feign - ed god. feign - ed god.
they stu - dy false a - stro - no - my! stro - no - my!

What poor astronomers are they à4

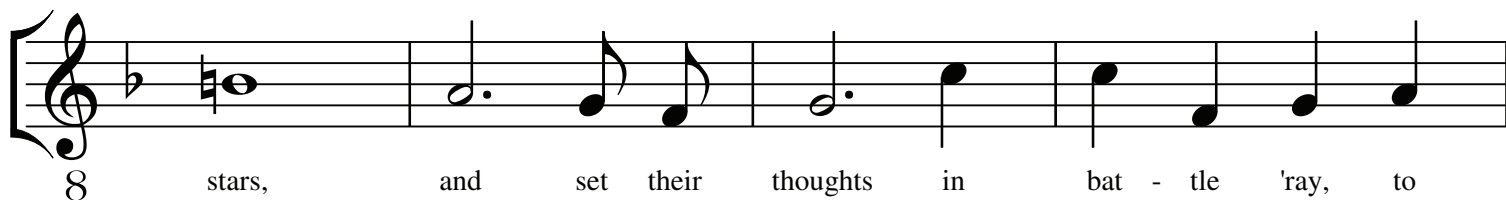

John Dowland (1563-1626)

Tenor

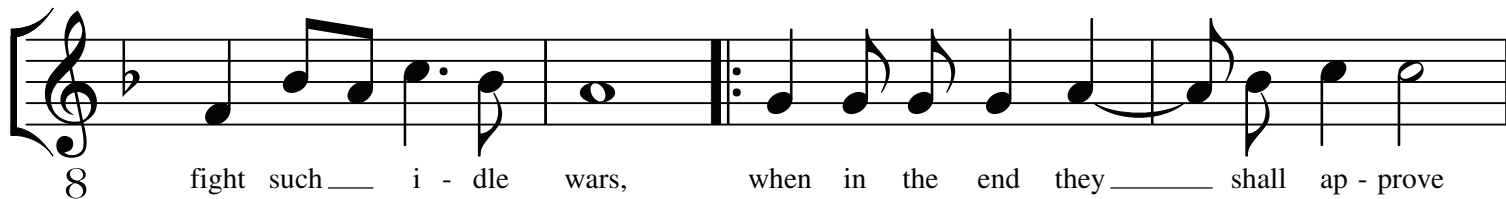

What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take ____ wo - men's eyes for
And love it - self is but a jest, de - ____ vis'd by i - dle
But yet it is a sport to see how ____ wit will run on
But such as will run mad with will, I ____ can - not clear their

4

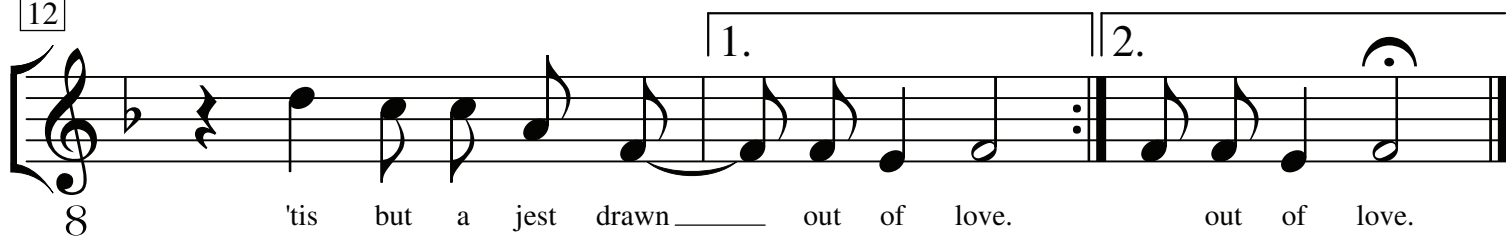

stars, and set their thoughts in bat - tle 'ray, to
heads, to catch young fan - cies in the nest and
wheels, while will can - not per - suad - ed be, with sight, but leave them to their stu - dy still, to 8

fight such ____ i - dle wars, when in the end they ____ shall ap - prove
lay it ____ in fools' beds; that, be - ing hatch'd in ____ Beau - ty's eyes,
that which ____ rea - son feels; that wom-en's eyes and ____ stars are odd,
look where ____ is no light. 'Till them too late we ____ make them try,

12

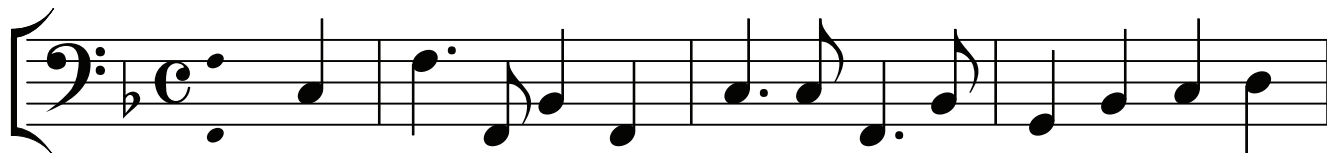

'tis but a jest drawn ____ out of love. out of love.
they may be fledg'd ere ____ they be wise. they be wise.
and Love is but a ____ feign - ed god. feign - ed god.
they stu - dy false a - ____ stro - no - my! stro - no - my!

What poor astronomers are they à4

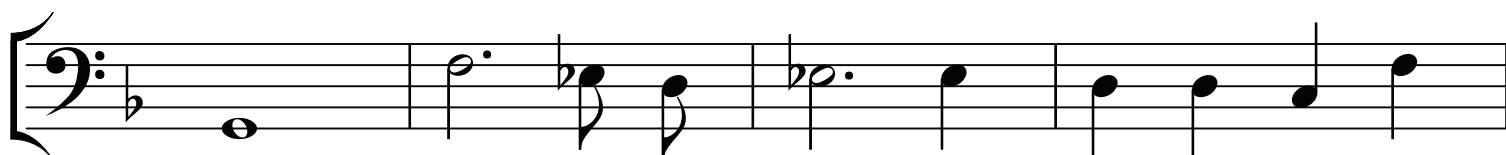

John Dowland (1563-1626)

Basso

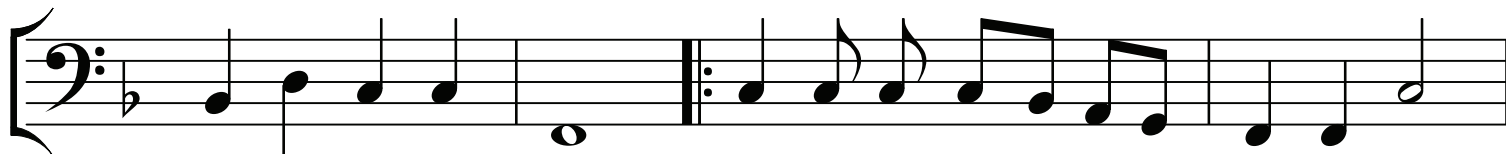

What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for
And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle
But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on
But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their

4

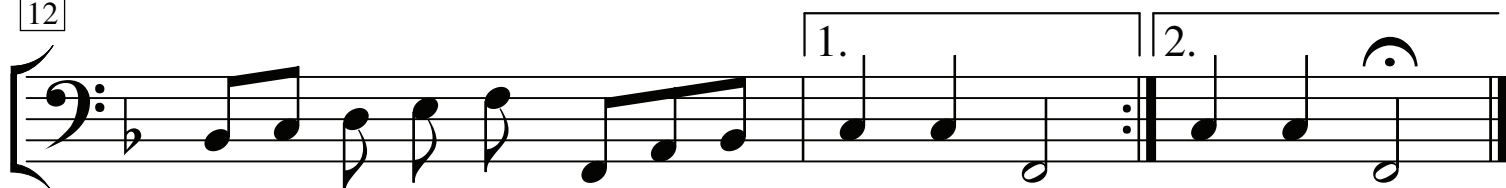

stars, and set their thoughts in bat - tle 'ray, to
heads, to catch young fan - cies in the nest and
wheels, while will can - not per - suad - ed be, with sight, but leave them to their stu - dy still, to 8

fight such i - dle wars, when in the end ___ they ___ shall ap - prove
lay it in fools' beds; that, be - ing hatch'd ___ in ___ Beau - ty's eyes,
that which rea - son feels; that wom-en's eyes ___ and ___ stars are odd,
look where is no light. 'Till them too late ___ we ___ make them try,

12

'tis ___ but a jest drawn ___ out of love. out of love.
they ___ may be fledg'd ere ___ they be wise. they be wise.
and ___ Love is but a ___ feign - ed god. feign - ed god.
they ___ stu - dy false a- ___ stro - no - my! stro - no - my!