

Preserve me, Lord, from crafty foes à4

Joseph Stephenson
(1723-1810)

C

But thus en - vi - ron'd with dis - tress, Thou Pre - serve me, Lord, from have craft - ty their foes snare, Of And

A

But thus en - vi - ron'd with dis - tress, Thou Pre - serve me, Lord, from have craft - ty their foes snare, Of And

T

But thus en - vi - ron'd with dis - tress, Thou Pre - serve me, Lord, from have craft - ty their foes snare, Of And

B

But thus en - vi - ron'd with dis - tress, Thou Pre - serve me, Lord, from have craft - ty their foes snare, Of And

7

art my God, I said; Lord, hear my sup - pli - trea - che - rous in - tent; And from the sons of wher - spread their wi - ly net; With traps and gins, wher -

8

art my God, I said; Lord, hear my sup - pli - trea - che - rous in - tent; And from the sons of wher - spread their wi - ly net; With traps and gins, wher -

13

ca - ting voice, That calls to thee for aid.
vi - o - lence, On I find o - pen my mis - chief bent.
e'er I move, I find o - pen my steps be - set.

8

ca - ting voice, That calls to thee for aid.
vi - o - lence, On I find o - pen my mis - chief bent.
e'er I move, I find o - pen my steps be - set.